Dare you compare it
to a country walk?

Dismissed by some
a sadly wasted day,

But this of course is ill informed, the talk

Of those ne'er to have shared the joy of play,

Or felt that surge of pleasure
at the smack

Of club on ball as it soars
through the sky,

A show of perfect symmetry in air,

To land with satisfying
thump on track

Then roll and roll to find that perfect lie.

But why are such experiences
so rare?
